PORTLAND, Maine (May 20, 2008) –Craig A. Owens, MSW, LCSW joins Community Counseling Center as its Vice President of Program Services. Craig previously served as the Operations Director for Tri County Mental Health Center. Craig brings a strong combination of clinical, leadership, innovation, and business skills to Community Counseling Center—a private, nonprofit family service agency providing a diverse array of counseling, education, wellness and mental health services to Maine residents.

Community Counseling Center is one of Maine's oldest and most comprehensive private, nonprofit family service agencies. With roots dating back to 1874, Community Counseling Center makes positive and lasting changes in the lives of over 6,000 individuals and families each year through prevention, education, treatment and wellness programs. In every program, whether it is a clinical intervention or a wellness service, we believe in the power of the human spirit, the innate strengths of individuals, and we practice in partnership with our clients to enhance resilience, promote recovery and build community. For more information, call (207) 874-1030 or visit www.commcc.org.
